PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

New London County Pomona grange, No. 6, held a largely attended meeting Thursday at Salem, being entertained in the Grange hall by the Salem grange. In the morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, there was a business session, with Worthing Master Everett, P. Barnes presiding. Three new members were received into Pomona. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon a public meeting was held, with a program in charge of Lecturer G. Warren Davis. This was especially entertaining and instructive, the program being as follows: Singing, by grange; address of welcome, Ernest Lathrop, worthy master of Salem grange; response, Worthing Master Everett, P. Barnes; address, The Care of the Wagon, Prof. W. O. Pilley, state forester; vocal duet, How Dear to Me the House, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Barnes. Worthing State Master Healey of Woodstock was present at the sessions and it was decided to have the grange meeting on August 12th, when the national master is to be here, and the grange is called specially to receive him. The selection of the place for the meeting is left to the executive committee.

EAGLES.

At the state convention last Tuesday P. New London, the delegates in this lodge, the state put up a strenuous fight for holding the state field day in New London, although there were many who wanted it down in the western end, but the delegates and no enclosed grounds to offer, and the fine facilities at Cannonball park turned the tide in New London favor, and it was voted to be held there in August, 1910.

A resolution was passed by the delegates pledging the support of Eagles in Connecticut to the movement for the extermination of tuberculosis. A final vote of thanks to New London grange, No. 394, was passed to show the appreciation of the state for the granger in which it had been entertained, one feature being the auto ride about the city and the shore dinner at Ocean Beach.

HIBERNIANS.

There was one initiated and two applications received Sunday afternoon at the regular meeting of Division No. 1, with Michael J. Dwyer in the chair. A very favorable report was received from the dance committee, which was working to provide for the money to secure a new Irish flag for the division. This is ordered and will be here in time to be carried in the parade in the celebration. Division No. 1 expects from 100 to 125 men in line, and has made all the arrangements for setting upon a dark suit, white straw hat, white gloves, and an American cane as the uniform to be worn. A souvenir is to be furnished to each one turning out to parade.

ORDER OF PROTECTION. Committees from North lodge, No. 24, and Thames lodge, No. 238, working jointly, have been fortunate in securing a place for the Neopian headquarters for Monday, July 19th, at the third floor in the Thames bank building, and are now sending out announcements and invitations to all lodges in the vicinity, specifying that all visiting Neopians are to consider this their headquarters while in the city for the purpose of the celebration of the town's 250th anniversary. A good representation of the supreme and grand lodge officers is expected. Free food will be served, and the local people are hoping that every visitor will call and make himself known while he is in the city. The committee on float is making good progress also.

Thames lodge, No. 238, held a meeting of interest Tuesday evening in Foresters hall, at which Miss Harriet B. De Garmo was elected vice warden to fill the place left by Mrs. Rose Pilley, who has removed from the city. In motion, Thursday evening, the newly instituted Port Griswold lodge, No. 483, had a largely attended meeting, at which Supreme Deputy E. E. Phil presented the new charter. Among the supreme and grand officers attending were: Grand Master, Trustee, Robert Small of New London, Supreme Representative M. J. Foley of this city, Deputy E. M. Newburg of this city and Deputy William Kingdom. Refreshments and social hour closed the meeting.

Monday evening Beulah lodge of New London is to have initiation, in which they will use for the first time the banners won for membership gain. It is probable that a number of the Norwich Neopians will attend.

AMERICAN MECHANICS. Menomonee council, No. 20, voted to change its meeting night hereafter at its regular meeting Wednesday evening in Pythian hall. The evening sessions, on Wednesday, are the first, third and fifth Fridays in each month, beginning in July. At the first July meeting there will be degree work and the initiation of the officers elected Wednesday night for the next six months. Those are the following: Joseph D. Austin, conciliator; Frank S. Smith, vice conciliator; A. A. Gule, R. S. F. Q. Smith, P. S.; H. H. Fitch, Jr., treasurer; R. W. Peck, and J. McKenna, P. E. O. Edward Hildebrand, L. P.; John Gumbie, O. P.; J. McKenna, trustee.

ODD FELLOWS. Sunday is the annual memorial day observed by the Odd Fellows, and the two lodges in this city, Uncas, No. 1, and Hope, No. 27, with Hope Hall, Beulah lodge, No. 21, will unite in the observance of the day by attending church at the Universalist church in the morning, by invitation of the pastor, Rev. Joseph F. Cobb, who is a member of Uncas lodge. For attending church the members will meet at the lodge room at 10 a. m., and march from there to the church. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock at Odd Fellows hall in the Olympic building, there will be a public memorial service to be attended by all members and their friends. The speaker will be Rev. Mr. Reynolds of Assonet, Mass. The public in general is welcome to this service.

The Odd Fellows' marker and flowers will be placed upon the graves of deceased members today. In the past year Uncas lodge has lost six members, as follows: Charles W. Bradbury, William A. Richmond, John A. Ford, George A. Gishman, Sr., William Welden and George H. Bruce. Sluetucker lodge has lost five: George W. Denison, Axel Young of Voluntown, Thomas Whitaker, Rufus W. Marshall and E. C. Francis. Hope lodge of Beulah has lost three: Mrs. Edith Water, Mrs. Eva Lewis and Mrs. Lavinia Goodwin.

Of the 143 graves of members of the order, 125 are in Yanke cemetery, four at Maplewood, six in the city cemetery, five in Greenville cemetery, one at Newent, three at Prouton Falls, three at Brewster's Neck, one at Lottingsfield and five at Poquatuck. P. E. Green, W. S. Allen and Robert A. Brown of Uncas lodge, and P. E. Miner, John H. Peck and Louis G. Shetucket lodge are in charge of the arrangements. At the meeting of Uncas lodge, No.

Monday evening there was work in the initiatory on one candidate, and the first degree at its meeting Tuesday evening.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

At the regular meeting of Bequequoan council, No. 11, Monday evening, 14 Foresters hall, the Pocahontas, Della Bailey, presided, and one candidate was received. The report was received from the Neosha Whist club of the whists held in the homes and in the hall for the past season. They were shown to have been very successful, nearly $100 dollars having been raised. The first nomination of officers for the next six months was made, to be followed by the election at the next meeting, when the state officers will be here.

The Neosha club held one of their whists with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ver-gason, Norwich Town, on Thursday afternoon and evening. A baked bean supper was served and was enjoyed by all. In the evening whist was played, with five tables. Prizes were taken by the following: First lady's, Mrs. Chevalier, water bottle, 32; second, Mrs. J. Leville, glass dish, 28; first gentleman's, N. D. Lathrop, armoire, 45; second, Rufus Harris, cup and saucer, 28; consolations, ladies taking part of gentlemen: First, Mrs. Pruetto; second, Maria L. Button. The next whist will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe on East Broad street.

FORESTERS.

Court Sachem, No. 54, held a meeting of special interest Thursday evening in Foresters hall, receiving one application and electing its officers for the next six months. Chief Ranger A. Crowell presiding, closing successful administration covering two terms, in which the court has made a substantial growth in membership and finances. The following were elected: Chief ranger, Irving J. Forbes; sub chief ranger, Cornelius Kennedy; recording secretary, Fred Carter; senior woodward, Dona Semineau; junior woodward, John Shannon; senior beadle, John Callahan; junior beadle, William Hanson; lecturer, Henry Crepner; Cornelius Kennedy and John J. Shannon acted as tellers and Joseph Pruetto a scribe.

Deputy Harry H. Knowlton of Court Nathan Hale, No. 64, of New London, visited the court and was heard with interest during the evening. Deputy Knowlton succeeds George Fox of this city as deputy of the New London court, the constitution providing that where there is but one court in a city the court shall have as a deputy a Forester from its home city. Mr. Fox has been of invaluable service to the New London court, and it was with reluctance that the members there changed their chief.

Court Sachem considered the matter of an outing, but without taking action. The general opinion seemed to be that there would be outings enough in the July celebration. The regular meeting of Court City of Norwich, No. 62, Friday evening in Foresters hall, was largely attended, it being the second quarter of the year when many reports are made to the board. Two candidates were initiated and two applications received. After an hour of hot debate and hard work, a staff of officers to act for the next six months was presented. The following officers were elected: C. R. William Weider, R. E. William Mac-honey recording secretary, J. F. Malone; Sr. W. Charles Bourne; Jr. W. George Dolan; Sr. R. William Neibart; Jr. E. William Harney; lecturer, John Donahue; organist, William Riley. It was voted to follow the usual custom of holding only one meeting per month during July and August, and this will be on the first Friday of each month.

GRAND ARMY.

Sedgewick post, No. 1, held a lengthy meeting Friday evening at the Buckingham Memorial, at which Commander Fine S. Stetson presided, and one application was received and voted in that of Albert O. Brooks, a corporal in Company H, Eleventh Connecticut. The post received a cash gift of $25 from a friend, a member of the Citizens' corps, and their great appreciation is to be expressed in a written note of thanks from the adjutant as directed by the post.

Comrade Huntley of Admiral Foote post, No. 17, the largest but one in New England, was a visitor and was heard in pleasing remarks. Much of the time was spent in talking over details in connection with the coming anniversary of the town, and it was decided to call a special meeting for Monday evening, June 28, at which it is expected to have present every member of the post who is to participate in the celebration. Adjutant Hovey has ordered twelve military saddles for the use of the post members who have volunteered to ride. These are loaned by the state and every veteran who wants a saddle will secure one by applying to Adjutant Hovey and will sign a receipt with the saddle is loaned to him.
